Dear Reader

Coachman is a Midrand-based coaching company with years of travelling experience under their shiny, well-maintained exteriors.

When you need to travel long or short distances, for leisure, education or corporate reasons, they are the only company you ever need to contact.

Your journey starts the moment you contact us for a quote – our highly-trained staff leap into action using the latest software available to calculate the most fuel efficient and comfortable route. When you accept our quote, you are assigned one or more of our many coaches with features perfectly suited to your needs.

Our friendly drivers will be at the pick-up point before the scheduled time and assist you with storing your belongings and boarding the coach. While you are on the road, assistance is never more than a phone call away.

When you are safely back from a successful and memorable journey, we will kindly ask you for feedback on how to make your next trip with us even more exciting, fun and safe!

Contact us right now for more information on our superb range of coaches and an obligation-free quotation.

Coachman – All you need in a journey.
